

APIOH for our HEROESSM

Connecting To Their Selflessness

EXPRESS YOUR APPRECIATION

APIOHSM is a company dedicated to creating recognition systems so organizations can provide their members the ability to show their appreciation for those who have gone above and beyond.

Our goal is to help organizations and their patrons identify the heroes and their contributions that we sometimes take for granted, and to impart those sentiments to others. Every organization has its heroes. Are yours being properly acknowledged?

FEATURES

Preserve Their Special Events

APIOHSM provides organization members the ability to store and present more than just a name, heroic action and date on a two dimensional plaque. Offer your members the ability to include substance and visual content when they show their gratitude toward their heroes.

Chronicle Their Heroism

Each heroic act shared by your members adds more than just praise. It adds understanding, emotion, sincerity and warmth. Share these individuals merits with others. Impart your sentiments through articles and photos, and add perspective to your sentiments. The true essence of the heroes can be communicated.

Share Their Story Within Your Organization and Through Your Web Site

Because APIOH is web based, you can share what makes them a hero to be accessed on an APIOH ViewSM screen within your organization and can be attached to your website to share with your members around the world. Visitors can search for an individual with APIOH's easy search functionality.

Easy to Operate and Maintain

Each organization has full control to edit and update their own information from any internet connected computer. Members can also submit for approval additional information through their own web interface.

Sing their praises.

APIOH – A Place In Our Hearts has developed a unique web based product that provides organizations the ability to help their members create, present and celebrate those individuals who give of themselves to make our lives better.

Heroes are those who provide us with direction, hope and security. They are special people who become our role models through their actions. They push us to be the best we can be just by virtue of their actions.

True heroes do not look for accolades. They do not do what they do for praise or reward. Heroes do what they do because it is the right thing to do. Thanking them is also the right thing for us to do. Thank them in the right way. Share your feelings of appreciation the APIOH way.

APIOH - for our Heroes also develops chronicles to be appreciated long after their acts of heroism take place. Your members will enjoy sharing the stories and photos with their children and grandchildren and do so in the organization that has meant so much to them throughout the generations.

Let us hold a special place in our history for our heroes. Through APIOH, those special heroes can continue to occupy...
